

Cattleman's Family Legacy Scholarship Application

~Applications due September 27, 2017~ Interview October 4, 2017~

The Cattleman's Family Legacy program is a scholarship program designed to pass on a Black Hills Stock Show cattleman's legacy by donating a heifer to the next generation in the form of a scholarship to a Western Junior Livestock Show exhibitor. This heifer will be raised and shown by the scholarship recipient. The recipient will receive the heifer after the 2018 Black Hills Stock Show and must return to show her at the 2018 Western Junior Livestock Show.

Criteria for selection:

Applicant is required to have a commitment to agriculture, future goals, and the ability to raise the animal in a proper setting.

Eligibility Requirements :

- Applicant must be between the ages 8-17 at the time of the 2017 Western Junior Livestock Show.
- Applicant must be a livestock exhibitor in the current Western Junior Livestock show.
- Write a statement (500 words or less, typed) on: Why you want to be part of the Cattleman's Family Legacy?
- Applicant must have the facilities and capabilities to care for and raise the animal in a proper setting.
- Include with application a letter of recommendation from a non-family member who is able to comment on your abilities to care for this animal.
- The application must be signed by applicant, County Educator / Advisor and from parent or guardian to accept responsibility of this animal.
- A selected group of applicants will be asked to have a brief interview with the Cattleman's Family Legacy committee prior to Thursday evening's supper. Winner will be announced that night.
- Applicant will take possession of the heifer at the conclusion of the 2018 Black Hills Stock Show.
- Heifer will be displayed at the 2018 Black Hills Stock Show. Winner is not required to be present that week but is asked to be present at the Banquet and Ball, Saturday, January 27, 2018, for a recognition ceremony.
- Heifer must be bred and shown in the Futurity show at the 2018 Western Junior Livestock Show by applicant.
- Winner is required to provide the Central States Fair with a progress report twice within the first year.
- Failure to follow these requirements may result in loss of award.
